Letter of Intent – a signed and dated declaration by the MA clearly stating the motivations for moving to Malta and the intention of applying for the Nomad Residence Permit.

Bank Statement – Bank Statement – the last three (3) months' bank statements showing all transactions in the name of the Main Applicant must be submitted. MA's income must be credited directly to these bank accounts. In instances where countries issue such certificates for individuals below the age of 18, and such minors are part of the application, these certificates are also to be submitted to the Agency.

Police certificates must be original documents, less than 6 months old upon submission of application, and certified by the national/federal police system of the relevant country.

Any police conduct certificates which are not in the English language should be translated accordingly. Employment Status

In case of employment – MA is to submit a contract of employment clearly showing obligations to the employer, describing work duties and stating that work may be performed remotely, independent of location. A bank statement clearly showing the income from employment in the previous three (3) months must also be provided.

In case of self-employment – MA is to provide bank statement of an account in their own name clearly showing the income received from self-employment for the previous three (3) months. A Certificate of Incorporation and Share Register must be provided. Depending on the jurisdiction, documents may be titled in a different manner but would still hold jurisdictional equivalence.

In case of freelance – MA is to submit service contracts clearly showing obligations to the service receiver, the work duties performed and the rate of payment. A bank statement showing inward transactions of income generated during the previous three (3) months from the declared activities for which service contracts are being submitted is also required.

MAAs, in all of the above employment statuses, must prove they have a guaranteed source of income, as per applicable thresholds, for a minimum period of 5 months (cumulative) from the day of application.

Other documents

Marriage Certificate – if a spouse is part of the application, a marriage certificate is required.

De Facto Partnership – unmarried couples who have been in a stable and ongoing relationship for more than two consecutive years must give sufficient proof of such relationship. These may include:

- utility bills;
- lease agreements;
- bank statements (showing transactions between accounts or joint bank accounts);
- flight tickets;

Award of custody/guardianship – in cases where a court/legal judgement would have given the custody/guardianship of a minor dependant, the relative documentation must be provided. For example, if a parent would have been given sole custody, the court/legal ruling granting such sole custody must be attached.

Note, however, that in the case of a minor child for whom the MA does not hold sole custody and who will not be accompanied by both parents in the same application, prior approval to include the dependant must be obtained from Residency Malta as these requests are examined on a case-by-case basis.

Declaration to engage a representative – in cases where an MA wishes to engage a representative to assist with the application process, a declaration is to be submitted, signed by both parties and a witness. The Agency considers any instructions and/or information given by the representative just as if these were given by the applicant and the Agency is not liable for any decision arising as an effect of these instructions.

These should be official bank statements, issued by the bank, either downloaded directly in PDF format from the internet, web banking portals or bank apps, or scanned copies of officially stamped and signed hardcopies issued by the bank. Applications of overstaying individuals will be refused.

The receipt of application issued to the applicant upon submission of application for a Nomad Residence Permit is not an extension of stay in Malta as stipulated by the immigration document in hand. The Agency is not liable for any applicant's overstaying and the consequences that may result.
